The Senior Class of Pleasant Mills High School
Pleasant Mills, Indiana

We Dedicate

We the Senior Class of 1962 dedicate this Spotlight to the Senior Class of 1937: Ruby M. Bragg, Pauline Carver, Ida Mae Cottrell, Doris Durbin, Catherine Fairchild, Boneta Meyer, Robert L. McMillen, Maurice Miller, Faye V. Myers, George Ray, Mary Ray, Thelma Ray, Ellen Fay Spencer, Phyllis Taylor, Rebecca Teeple, Cathyl M. Tinkham, Gordon Walker, Robert Wells, and Earl Williamson, who edited the first Spotlight twenty-five years ago.

We are happy to continue in the tradition of editing the Spotlight for the parents, friends, and students of Pleasant Mills School.

We can not say here how truly we appreciate the Class of '37 for their interest in promoting the welfare of our school.

It takes planning and organization to acquire those things that are essential to make a go of life. Carelessness in the matter of preparation is the prelude to disaster. A developed and trained mind is a part of the essential equipment for life. Educational facilities afford a chance to acquire this much needed equipment. When one's attitude toward education is: "I'll slide through some way", or "Just so I get a passing grade," he will miss his goal. So it is with life. Many people miss the door of opportunity because they do not have the key or preparation needed to open the door to success in life. Prepare yourself; obtain the key that will enable you to open the door to success.

Class

Here it is, 1972, after ten wonderful years, the class of '62' finally are reunited at the Ranch'O of Steve Barker and Ralph Buettner in Mexico. Steve and Ralph are still leading a bachelor's life and according to Ralph they're planning to keep it that way for a long time.

Roger Beer arrived a week early from his home in Hollywood, where he is a famous movie director. Sharalyn Bollenbacher was the next to arrive. Sharalyn is better known as Sherry Berry to her fans, has just finished her latest singing role in a movie which Roger directed.

Sharalyn greeted Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tumbleson (the former Sandy Brunner) and their three little "Tumbleweeds" with a hearty "Hello." Close behind was Mr. and Mrs. John Black, who are now owners of a fur Company in Alaska.

Suddenly in a cloud of dust came Raymond Cook on his horse. Ray's horse won the Kentucky Derby last month. Close behind, in the dust, came Marv and Richard Luginbill who are pro-basketball players for the Boston Celtics. Their transportation was furnished by the "Ford Motor Company" in Pennsylvania, which is presently owned by John Noll and Ron Daniels, who have just arrived.

Puffing away, in walked Judy (Garwood) Burkhart, who has taken a month's vacation from her tobacco plantation. It is known as the "L & J Tabacco Co." Judy regrets informing us that Carol (Graham) Zimmerman and her husband are unable to attend the reunion. Their two sets of twins, as you can imagine, keep them quite busy most of the time.

A sudden noise in the sky brought the attention of everyone! Stepping from the A. K. F. Jet was Karen Foor, the owner and the previous stewardess of the A. K. F. Jet Airlines of America.

Prophecy

Just as everyone of us was beginning to renew old times in walked John Snyder, his wife, and his old buddy, Tom Edgell. They are now the owners of the Decatur Industries which took them 10 years to acquire.

In walked Patty Sovine, much to our surprise carrying a shorthand book which she forgot to put away since she just came from her class. She is now a very prominent "Shorthand Lecturer of America and Foreign Countries."

Yes, here she is, Mrs. Roger Gaunt (the former Beverly Myers) with her singing quartet. They are now producing a new record called the "Grapevine Twist."

"Chug, Chug, here comes Melvin Ohler in his new Re-Modled, Model-T Ford. It is said that he could get at least $100,000 for it in Oklahoma at the Sports Arena.

In walked Mary Lee Longenberger wearing her new fur jacket which she models in the Ayres Fashion Shows.

Baaaaaa! What was that noise? "It's Linda King and her husband arriving on sheep-back," someone shouted. Linda's husband is a sheep buyer in Wichita, Kansas, where Linda is a secondary school teacher.

Paul Rich, Republican Governor of Indiana, is now driving up in his new Cadillac. With him is his Secretary, Louise Hindenlang, who was a prominent business woman before Paul became Governor.

Suddenly the phone rang it was Barbara Jackson, calling from Blair Hospital where she is a "head nurse", saying that she would be a little late on account of an "emergency operation".

Last but not least to arrive was Charles Fisher who was late because he had just finished writing his latest book, entitled "How To Skip School."

It looks like everyone has now arrived. Here's hoping we see you all again in 1982.

Junior Write - Up

The Junior Class Trip this year was to Philadelphia, New York, Washington, D. C., and Pittsburgh. It was an eight day trip, and they traveled by bus. The Sponsors on the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Tom King. The fund raising for the trip consisted of: Candy Sales, Concessions, Coke Machine, Magazine Sales, Car Washes, and Sock Sale.

The class exchanged names for Christmas. Then they had a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. King. They went bowling for the evening and refreshments were served. At the party they exchanged their "nonsense" gifts, which were very funny.

Since the Juniors were one of the smallest classes to raise money to go on their trip, they all worked hard and did enough to go on their trip.

At the time the YEAR BOOK was being "scrambled together" they were doing well and had no money problems as of yet. "They hope to leave from Washington with plenty of money left over."

The Sophomore Class had a party at the home of their sponsor, Mr. Gene Hindenlang. They also had a skating party at the Happy Hours Roller Rink.

The Sophomores ordered their class rings March 8, and will receive them next year. They are anxiously awaiting for their arrival!!!

Roger Burkhart, Bob McMillen, Gary Clouse, and Terry Black were on the Varsity Team this year. The Yell Leaders from this class are: Jane Girod, and Sharon Currie.

The Sophomores wish to welcome a new student to their class, Fred Bietler.

Freshmen Write Up

The Freshmen Class started their first year in High School with 28 students and losing Erma Serna after the second 6 weeks. They were all very sorry to see her leave. The Freshmen Home Economics Class gave a surprise party for her.

The class party was held in October at Jackie Longenburger's house.

The class had a scrap iron drive and picked up corn on Saturday's to make money for their class trip they will take in their Junior Year.
